

WILTON CAMPUS

Situated on top of gently undulating chalky hills overlooking beautiful countryside with nearby rivers of Nadder and Wylde is Wilton School. Located in a small quintessential market town of Wilton, south Wiltshire with a history spanning more than 2,000 years. The school buildings at The Hollows date back to the 1930's with previous school owners, trustees and benefactors

Focus School acquired the facilities from Wiltshire Council in 2010. Over a period of twelve months renovated, upgraded and improved the school that had been empty for approximately five years to provide it today following merger of Allbrook and Tisbury as Wilton School

Office Concepts were awarded the project of upgrading the existing staff room to create a unique 'Professional Hub' for teachers and staff.

The project involved minor demolition works to enlarge the overall area, install an exposed ventilation system, suspended ceiling, mood lighting, complete décor, flooring of various types, kitchen facilities
